

Objectives

- Inspire people to express leadership from whatever role they have
- Connect people to the Seven Kirklees Outcomes and the Health and Wellbeing Plan so that it drives their day to day decisions.
- Build authentic relationships because that is the mechanism through which work gets done
- Recognise the collective power in the room
- Hear each other's positive stories of working across boundaries for the benefit of the people of Kirklees
- Shifting their sense of identity from working for one organisation to improving the health and wellbeing of Kirklees people
- Create a wave of system leadership – people go out and inspire others with it as the way of working

Kirklees Integrated Systems Leadership Events

Format of Feb 2020 Events

- The second workshop is locally focused with one in each of north and south Kirklees and will provide a refresher on:
 - Connecting people to the 7 Kirklees Outcomes and Health and Wellbeing Plan 2018-23
 - Helping people understand their role in delivering these
 - Get to know and build relationships with people from across Kirklees
 - Share stories of working across organisational boundaries to deliver health and wellbeing for the people of Kirklees
- The workshop will then focus on:
 - Continuing with the relationship building – building new local relationships
 - Getting together with people in your locality – what is the work you need to do?
 - Modelling the organisation, system and relationships needed
 - Understand place based ways of working and asset based approaches to working with communities
